A Garden in Kensington

So much has been said about the electric service through the tunnels under the East River, which will soon bring Great Neck within 26 minutes of the heart of Manhattan, that the fact that it has a water route more beautiful than that to the Jersey coast has been lost sight of.

One of the most delightful and picturesque trips around New York is by water up the East River, through the Sound to Great Neck. A line of fast, well-equipped boats makes regular trips mornings and afternoons throughout the entire summer season, from the foot of Wall Street and East 34th Street, direct to Great Neck without stop. The trip occupies an hour, and affords a pleasant alternative to the train service during the hot weather. Touching as it does the downtown business section, as well as the heart of the uptown shopping district, its convenience, both for business men and shoppers, has made this route extremely popular.

Kensington is four blocks north of the station at Great Neck, fourteen miles from the new Pennsylvania Terminal, and is right in the heart of the most exclusive residential section of Long Island.

If you are interested in a home in the country, let us call with an automobile and show you Kensington and the beautiful houses we are building there.
